Overview

- The position of World Changer is an important part of training the children of the next generation in what it means to truly receive from God, to know His voice and move fully in the Spirit.
- Those wishing to become World Changers must participate in a weekly discipleship course to show they fully understand the importance and role they play in this ministry and training other children.

- Have accepted Jesus Christ into your life as Lord and Savior.
- A $25 Registration Fee must be turned in with this application. This fee will be used to purchase curriculum for the student.
- Complete a 100 word essay on: "Why do you want to be a World Changer, and how do you think it can help you and your church."

Parent's Pledge

- As a parent I know I play a vital role in the physical and spiritual growth of my child. By signing this pledge, I agree to support and encourage my child's participation in the World Changers Program. I understand that this is a commitment of time and resources from my family. By working together with the church I not only make a difference in my child's life but in the world that my child seeks to change.
